To the People of Pennsylvania.

The Republican Party of Pennsylvania, in appealing once more to the people for their suffrages, does so with the conviction that the candidates upon its ticket are in every way worthy of support; honest, capable, and faithful to its principles; and that the record of the party it represents justifies the assertion that the Commonwealth has never so prospered as when under Republican rule.

The Democratic Party held almost unbroken control of the State from 1829 to 1858. Excepting Governors Ritner and Johnston, it had all the Governors elected during that period, and controlled the Legislature in both branches in every year but three during that time; it built up an enormous debt of over forty millions of dollars, and produced the Canal Ring, under which this debt was contracted, which did more to foster jobbery, promote corruption, and establish traffic in office, than any organization that has ever existed here.

The Republican party obtained partial control in 1858 and 1859, and was completely successful in 1860, and has remained in power with but one or two interruptions since that year. Under its hands, the credit of the State, impaired by the recklessness of its predecessor, has been restored; the State debt has been reduced from $42,000,000 to $32,000,000, with an accumulation of a Sinking Fund, practically reducing it to $13,000,000; a war debt of three and one-half millions has been paid; the tax of three mills upon all our real estate has been wiped out; a half million has been bestowed upon the citizens of Chambersburg for their relief from rebel incendiarism; the common school system has been maintained at a present annual expense of $1,000,000; the orphans of our soldiers have been cared for; asylums for the insane and reformatory institutions have been established and supported; $7,000,000 have been dedicated to the Centennial Celebration; our internal resources have been developed; bureaus have been erected and maintained for the protection of our mining population; yet, nowhere in the Union, is the burden of a State Government so lightly felt. The State, under Republican rule, has been honestly governed, and her honor held above reproach.

It is alleged by the opposition that the annual expenditures of the State have been increased since the Republicans came into power. The increase of expenditures has only kept pace with the increase in population, wealth and the material industries to be fostered by Government. Twenty-four years ago the Common Schools received an annual appropriation of $150,000 to $175,000; now they receive one million. Then there was no expense for repelling invasions or suppressing the rebellion; no Chambersburg sufferers to be indemnified; no soldiers' orphans to be maintained; no insane asylums to support; few charitable institutions to aid. The Legislature has been doubled in size and expense. To these causes, not to extravagance, corruption, or wrong, the increased expenditure is largely attributable. This increase has been for the public good, while the ability to maintain the expenditure has grown with the growth of the State, and strengthened with its strength.—Within the last few years the people have been relieved entirely from all direct taxation for State purposes, except partially upon personal property, and the burden of the maintenance of the Government has been imposed upon corporations.

The Republican party came into prominence before the whole world as the sword-bearer of this nation, to protect and preserve it against internal as well as external foes; and having delivered the Union from destruction, claims that the National Government should be administered upon the principles of those who preserved it, and not upon the principles of those who endeavored to destroy it.

The doctrine of State Rights, though kept in the background, is the distinguishing tenet of the Southern Democracy. Without the Southern Democracy the Democratic party of the nation cannot prevail. It is dominated by them. Mr. Singleton, of Mississippi, at the last session of Congress announced boldly his adhesion to the doctrine that his allegiance was due first and always to his State. No party adhering to this principle can be safely entrusted with the administration of national affairs. The Union, held subordinate in supremacy to the States, would fall asunder upon the first resolute assertion of State sovereignty. The Republican party maintains the recognized powers of the States under the Constitution but stands like a rock against the right of a State to set up its supremacy against that of the nation. The party maintaining that right is unfitted by its principles to administer the government of the nation or maintain its integrity.

Controlled by the South the Democratic party must shape its policy upon the mould of the southern leaders, and the southern leaders, in turn, must accommodate themselves to the demands of their section. Mr. Goode, of Virginia, who had charge of the bill to reimburse William and Mary College for its alleged loss during the Rebellion, gave to his constituents as a reason for not pressing a vote, that its passage would affect the elections now pending; after the elections he could rally more strength for it as the immediate fear of public censure would then be removed from the Democratic members. The policy of Mr. Goode actuates nearly all the friends of southern claimants. They await a Democratic Congress and Administration, when the Democrats must give them all they demand. Present delay is no abandonment of the claims. Democratic success will not only invigorate them but like the Archangel's trumpet will wake from the dead thousands of others now resting in the grave. Their extent cannot be measured, except by the ability of the party in power to manufacture them.

For the same reason the Democratic party, in Congress, discharged disabled Union soldiers from position and replaced them by the soldiers of the Confederate Army.

For the same reason, the Democratic party is a Free Trade party. It made a determined effort last winter, following the lead of a Committee of Ways and Means appointed by a Democratic Speaker from Pennsylvania, to pass the Wood Tariff Bill, aimed destructively at the vitals of all the industries of our State. The bill would have driven our workingmen out of employment or reduced their wages to starvation point, and would have succeeded, but for the almost unbroken front presented against it by the Republicans in Congress. An analysis of the test vote upon the bill is as follows:

For the bill,	Northern Republicans,	6.
" "	Southern "	2.
" "	Northern Democrats,	75.
" "	Southern "	89.
Ag'st the bill,	Northern Republicans	109.
" "	Southern "	7.
" "	Northern Democrats,	15.
" "	Southern "	8.

The Democratic party in Pennsylvania halted on this question—its candidate for Governor avoiding the initial vote in the Legislature—as did the Democratic members of Congress from Pennsylvania, until the thunders of popular sentiment, from Allegheny to the Lehigh, drove them to a faint resistance to the bill.—The Republican party of Pennsylvania, standing firmly by the policy of Protection, is in accord with the party throughout the country.

Our present paper currency grew out of the necessities of the late war. It supplanted a debased State currency, which was the plague of commerce and a prolific source of loss. Already practically at par with gold, it is the best currency we ever produced. In sixteen years scarcely ever has the changer of money in this country looked to see from what bank the note he handled was issued. It matters nothing, except to those interested in National Banks, whether the bank currency is retained or replaced by greenbacks, if the latter can constitutionally be substituted. The credit of each is based upon the National faith. To increase this currency would simply decrease purchasing power. Its present volume is equal to that before the panic of 1873, while the price of nearly every article of consumption is so reduced that a dollar will purchase more than at any period since the war.

To pay the National debt with irredeemable promises to pay is repudiation. The masses of the people of Pennsylvania are honest, and cannot sanction repudiation in any form. The remedy for our present difficulties is to be found only in a patient adaptation of ourselves to our surroundings. The current of worldly affairs flows on irresistibly; we cannot turn it back. We are gradually but surely rising from the slough of debt incurred when it was so easy to borrow, and as we emerge from it we will find our way back to National prosperity.

The Republican party has always insisted upon the equal rights of men, without regard to color, condition, or nationality. It gave the right to manhood, to labor, and to the proceeds of labor, to four millions of down-trodden people, and can never agree to surrender the right of the humblest citizen to live unmolested under his own roof tree, and to contract for his own labor as he will. The founders of the Commonwealth, a toiling people, handed it down to their posterity with a title sanctified by struggle, suffering, and sacrifice, indestructible by any of the wild vagaries of Socialism or Communism.

The safety and prosperity of this State depend upon the maintenance of the principles of the Republican Party. It has proven itself a trustworthy guardian of the interests of both State and Nation. Public security, public confidence, and public honor are alike involved in the coming contest. The voters of the State will be found with the party which has given strongest evidence of its ability to maintain them all.

M. S. QUAY,
Chairman Republican State Committee.

Highway Robbery.

On Friday last Clinton Rice and Daniel Cronin of Andover, both of whom, we believe, have given service to the State for their board, paid our village a visit, and seem to have indulged in their former occupation of borrowing other people's property, whether the other people would or no. They met in the woods just east of the village a boy named Dildine, and after vain attempts to see what kind of a watch he carried by asking the time of day, and as he persisted in refusing to advance a quarter to supply their thirsty throats with needed nourishment, they led him to a mossy bank in the deeper shades of the wood, and persuading him to silence by language more forcible than elegant, were about to help themselves to the pittance asked for when the noisy wheels of an approaching wagon disturbed their quiet and broke up the interview.

They afterwards found their way to the neighborhood of the depot, and after enjoying a treat at the expense of one George Barnes, of Belmont, proceeded to go through him for the change they had seen in his possession. Barnes offered some objection to this action on their part, and attempting to recover it was thrown down. He then procured the arrest of one of the party, Cronin having found his way out of town. Rice was examined before Justice Early on Saturday afternoon, and in default of $500 bail was sent to familiar quarters in Angelica jail.—Wellsville Reporter.

How He Overcame a Boa.

One afternoon a farmer in Strathearn having got his friend, the smith, to loan him an ax, set off to a neighboring town to get it sharpened. Being told that a menagerie of wild beasts was then exhibiting and knowing he had time to pay it a visit he went to see it, and had just satisfied his curiosity as the carpenter had finished his job. The evening being cold the two friends must needs have a gill, and, what between toddy and a long talk about snakes, the farmer really appeared a little elevated at parting. With an ax on his shoulder he left the town, ruminating as best he could on the wonders he had seen. He had not proceeded far, however, when a sudden noise came hissing through the hedge behind, and turning around he perceived with horror, by the faint glimmering of the new moon a huge boa-constrictor rolling in enormous folds toward him. To fly was madness—death was certain—but to die without a struggle was unmanly; so hastily drawing his breath, he made three desperate strides back, and by a well-aimed blow with his ax fortunately cut the monster in two. But before he could do more, each half of the animal suddenly became instinct, with life and both head and tail began to move as vivaciously as before. Again and again the ax came down with dreadful execution but ply it as he might and cut it into as many fragments as he chose, every fragment showed vitality and a disposition to sting if they had had the fangs to do so. Feeling that he had "scotched the snake," but despairing of killing it effectually, our heroic friend at last shouldered his ax and got home safely.

"Gude guide's John, what's made you so late?" cried his better half as he entered the door.

"I've killed a serpent, and saved the country side," replied the farmer with a look of conscious heroism.

"Ah, John, it is not the auld serpent I doot, else ye wadna hae been tempted to drink sae muckle whisky."

"It was a show serpent, broken out of a caravan; a boy-contractor, as they ca't" replied John, with warmth.

"Gae to the millstane, an' ye'll see it as deed's a herin'."

Johns two sons, learning the exact locality of the dread conflict, and knowing their father's courage, hastened off to witness the trophies of his prowess; when they found—not a boa-constrictor, but a lady's boa, worth 25 shillings, cut in fifty pieces!

It Don't Pay.

It don't pay to have fifty workingmen poor and ragged in order to have one saloon-keeper dress in broadcloth, and be flush of money.

It don't pay to have these fifty workingmen live on bone-soup and half-rations, in order that the saloon-keeper may flourish on roast turkey and champagne.

It don't pay to have the mothers and children of twenty families dressed in rags, and starved into the semblance of emaciated scarecrows and living in hovels, in order that the saloon-keeper's wife may dress in satin, and her children grow fat and hearty, and live in a bay window parlor.

It don't pay to have one citizen in the county jail because another citizen sold him liquor.

It don't pay to have ten smart, active and intelligent boys transformed into hoodlums and thieves, to enable one man to lead an easy life by selling them liquor.

It don't pay to have one thousand homes blasted, ruined, defiled and turned into hells of disorder and misery that one wholesale liquor dealer may amass a large fortune.

It don't pay to keep six thousand men in the penitentiaries and hospitals, and one thousand in the lunatic asylum, at the expense of the honest, industrious tax-payers, in order that a few rich capitalists may grow richer by the manufacture of whiskey.

A saloon-keeper sold a drinking man one pint of new rum, making fifteen cents clear profit. The man under the influence of that pint of rum, killed his son-in-law; his apprehension, confinement in jail, execution, etc., cost the county more than one thousand dollars, which temperance men had to earn by the sweat of their brows. It don't pay.

The loss sustained by society, morally and financially, the sorrow and suffering, the misery and destitution produced and augmented, and what is infinitely a greater consideration than all else, the destruction of soul and body, the inevitable result of using or trafficking in intoxicating liquors, these all attest the truthfulness of the verdict, it don't pay.—Saltcoath Recorder.

The Good Old Times.

There is a good deal of nonsense talked about the good old times. Every city, town or village in the land has its croakers, who see nothing but disaster in the future, hard times in the present, and good times in the past. The Adrian Times tells of one of those complaining individuals who was growling about the present low price in wheat. A well-known Michigan citizen gave a little of his experience of the good old times of forty years ago. He lived where Burr Oak now stands, and wanting to get some barrels of salt he put thirty bushels of wheat in his wagon and started for Adrian, eighty miles away. As he could not get cash there he went on to Palmyra mills and sold his wheat for 50 cents a bushel. Going back to Adrian he paid $3 for two barrels of salt and got back to Burr Oak after being five days gone, being delayed by the execrable roads. This is a sample of the good old times, and it must be admitted that they do not flatter themselves by comparison with the times we have at present.—Detroit Free Press.

What He Got.

"Now, Leander, my dear, I want you to be sure and not forget these few things when you come down to-night," says the young wife, just before the kiss and "good-by," at the summer hotel, in the morning, as the gentlemen were starting for the city.

"Certainly not, my love."

And this is the way the list ran:

1. Two yards of blue barege.
2. Two yards of Hamburg edgings.
3. My new braid from the hair store.
4. Half a dollar's worth of nainsook.
5. Box pearl-powder from my upper drawer.
6. "Modern Minister," from Loring's Library.

Arriving in town, he forgot all about the list till late in the afternoon, and then couldn't find it in any of his pockets; but hadn't he read it over, and did not he recollect it all? Of course he did, and this is what he brought home to his expectant wife:

1. Two heads of blue cabbage.
2. Three yards handsome netting (mosquito.)
3. Some blue braid.
4. Half a dollar's worth of canned soup.
5. Box of seidlitz powders and pair of drawers.
6. Loring said he hadn't got any such book as "The Mug and Canister" in the library.

Exclamation on receiving the above, "O Leander, Leander, you must have been dining at that horrid club again, or you couldn't have made such a mistake."

Fashion Notes.

Lace will be all the rage this fall.

Plush fabrics will be much worn.

Caravan cloth will be much worn.

Blue is a favorite color for costings.

Bonnets will be worn of a larger size.

Velvet will be used for trimming dresses.

Lustreless silks are the most fashionable.

Tinsel threads crop out in many new fabrics.

Felt bonnets are to be embroidered with gold.

Every lady arranges her hair to suit her face.

Composite costumes are as fashionable as ever.

Thiers red is the new shade of garnet or maroon.

Felt hats will be more popular than ever this fall.

Flowers of fur will be among the winter novelties.

Shods cloth is the new name for India cashmere.

Gold braids and gold embroideries are to be revived.

Lace mitts are worn at the moment on all occasions.

True Story of the Hatchet.

"George, did you chop down the cherry tree?"

"What do you say?"

"Did you chop down that tree?"

"Ax me no questions and I'll tell you no lies."

"George, have you a hatchet?"

"So's a hen."

"You chopped down that tree?"

"Didn't."

"Young man, commere to me."

"What do you want?"

"To play hide and seek."

So the old man went out to seek the hide.

The scene which ensued in the wood-shed beggars description. It was touching in the extreme.—Hawkeye.

THE yellow fever has been much more severe in other years in the south than it is at present. In New Orleans the maximum of deaths daily up to this time has been 108, while in 1853 there were 250 deaths in a single day, (August 22, which was regarded as the height of the pestilence) which during most of the month of August the deaths averaged 108 daily; this was with a population of only 80,000, much less than at present, and of this number 13,000 died during the season named. Nothing approaching this mortality is now reported. In New York in 1822 there was a great yellow fever panic, and a number of the down-town streets were fenced in, yet the deaths did not exceed 200, while in 1798 in that city 2,500 people died from the fever out of a population of 50,000, and there was no panic whatever.

IN the city of Paris, writes Prof. Silliman to the New York World, gas is sold to consumers for $2.50 per thousand feet, but the city pays only half that sum in consideration of the monopoly. After the gas company pays ten per cent. on its original capital, half of all earnings in excess of ten per cent. are paid over to the city. The annual revenue of the city from this source is $1,700,000.

A SCOTCH clergyman has pointed out a remarkable misprint occurring in all editions of Shakespeare's works and never before noticed, by which the bard is made to say: "Books in the running brooks, sermons in stones, and good in everything," when what he really said was undoubtedly "stones in the running brooks, sermons in books, and good in everything."

The American Arctic Expedition.

Mr. James Gordon Bennett, the energetic proprietor of the New York Herald, having, by a liberal expenditure of capital and the indomitable perseverance of Mr. H. M. Stanley, succeeded in opening out the hitherto unexplored portion of the African continent, has now turned his attention from tropical to Arctic exploration, and is organizing an expedition, entirely at his own cost, which is to make yet another attempt to reach the North Pole. For this purpose he has purchased the well-known Arctic yacht Pandora, which, under the command of Capt. Allen Young, has already achieved important work in the North Polar regions. The Pandora, which has been rechristened the Jeannette by Mr. Bennett, is a screw steamer of some 250 tons burden, and is fitted with engines of 80 horse power. She is specially built for Arctic service, and, in addition to a hull of more than ordinary strength, is sheathed from eight feet above her keel to two feet above her water line with a coating of American elm some three inches thick, so that her resistance to the nipping of the ice may be rendered as great as possible. The rudder can be dismounted and replaced in case of accident, and she is fitted with a perfect magazine of appliances and instruments for Arctic exploration, such as sledges, ice saws, tents, ice anchors, etc.; while she carries about 164 tons of coal, her daily consumption, when steaming four knots an hour, being reckoned at three and a half tons. The hull, for greater safety, is divided into three water-tight compartments, and, since the 1st of April, has been under the hands of the shipwrights, and has been thoroughly and completely repaired, any injured woodwork being removed and replaced by new. In the stern, also, a comfortable cabin has been formed for the officers. On June 18, as we have said above, Mr. Bennett rechristened the vessel the Jeannette, and she has now sailed for San Francisco, where her fitting out is to be completed in time to start on her journey next January, when she will attempt to attain the North Pole by way of Behring Straits. At the same time Mr. Bennett will dispatch another yacht, the Dauntless, which will also try to reach the Pole by way of Spitzbergen.

We are authorized to announce the name of P. M. FULLER, of Bradford township, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of McKean county, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

We are authorized to announce the name of M. W. WAGNER, of Bradford borough, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of McKean county, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

COMMISSIONER.

We are authorized to announce the name of A. D. BURBANK, of Keating township, as a candidate for the office of Commissioner of McKean county, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

We are authorized to announce the name of N. W. ABBEY, of Smethport Borough, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner of McKean county, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. L. ANDREWS, of Bradford borough, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of McKean county, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

HOYT ON FINANCE.

Professing to be an honest man, the candidate of an honest organization I favor honest money.

The volume of the currency should be regulated by legitimate demand, and not by the requirements of bankrupts and wild speculators.

The currency should be redeemable as early as the exigencies of the Government will permit, in the currency recognized by all civilized nations.

The contract of the Government should be held as sacred as the contracts of individuals, and the bonds, the evidence of its indebtedness, should be paid according to the understanding between the Government and the lender.—Speech at Butler, Sept. 2, 1878.

Having nothing to defend, let us not go upon the defensive. Being right, gentlemen, let us be aggressive.—GEN. H. M. HOYT.

PLATFORM.—Opposition to all paper inflation and consequent depreciation. In favor of a currency of coin and paper of equal value and equal purchasing power—the paper convertible into coin at the will of the holder.

Republican County Convention.

The Republican Electors of McKean county are requested to meet in caucus at their respective places for holding elections on Saturday evening, September 14th, 1878, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of electing two delegates to represent their district in County Convention to be held at the Court House, Smethport, WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 18, 1878. Every citizen of the county who is in favor of an honest currency and a strict maintenance of the Nation's honor and integrity is cordially invited to participate in the selection of delegates.

The Convention will be called to order at 7½ p. m., and will proceed to the selection of Congressional delegates, and the nomination of candidates for the following offices:

One person for Prothonotary, &c.
One person for Sheriff.
One person for District Attorney.
One person for Representative.
Two persons for Co. Commissioners.
Two persons for County Auditors.
One person for County Surveyor.

Let there be a full representation from every election precinct in the county.

As it is inconvenient in many localities of the county for the Republican electors to meet in caucus at the place of holding elections, the following gentlemen are designated as committee in their respective districts to select a place for holding a caucus on Saturday evening, Sept. 14. These committees are earnestly requested to secure as large an attendance as possible of earnest Republicans at the caucuses, and it will further be their duty to call the meetings to order, and see to it that the selection of delegates is conducted fairly and for the best interests of the party:

RESUMPTION NEXT MONDAY.

Secretary Sherman has determined to begin virtual redemption of United States notes on the 16th September, one week from this day. The order to commence specie payments was issued on Saturday, as follows:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Sept. 7, 1878

HON. JAMES GILFILLAN, Treasurer United States:

On and after the 16th day of this month you are authorized, at the Treasury in Washington, and at the several Sub-Treasuries in the United States, to exchange standard silver dollars for United States notes. Very respectfully,

JOHN SHERMAN, Secretary.

This exchange will be a virtual redemption of legal-tenders in gold. For the silver received will take the place of gold in payments to the Treasury. It will draw legal-tenders into the Treasury, there to accumulate until the date of formal resumption, but will come back again, nearly as fast as it is issued, as long as any premium on gold remains.—The same silver can then be paid out again in exchange for greenbacks, if anybody wants it, and taken in again instead of gold, and thus the Dollar of the Fathers will be used, like buckets on an endless chain, to pump up into the Treasury all the greenbacks that will not circulate at par with gold. Immediately after the passage of the Allison bill in the Senate, THE TRIBUNE said, "As long as silver can "be used only as a token-coinage, it will "not hinder but, as General Ewing says, "will help resumption. * * * Since "the silver dollars paid out instead of "legal-tenders would at once come back "into the Treasury by payment of du-"ties, while the legal-tenders would re-"main idle in the Treasury, it is essen-"tially a bill for the rapid retirement of "the greenback circulation." For that very purpose, as long as any premium on gold remains, Secretary Sherman will now use the Silver bill. There is poetic justice in this slaughter of repudiators by the very weapons which were fashioned for the defeat of resumption.

We have repeatedly expressed the belief that a still better mode of reaching the same end would be to pay out gold directly in place of legal-tenders. But Secretary Sherman is charged with the responsibility of selecting the methods by which the "Sherman's Sham" of Democratic journals in 1875 can be made most effective for resumption in 1879, and he deserves the full confidence and support of all who really desire restoration of specie payments and maintenance of the public credit. Assuredly the method he has chosen to adopt promises to be an exceedingly effective one. If, as many have insisted, legal-tenders to the amount of $50,000,000 must be withdrawn before the remainder can circulate at par, the plan of Mr. Sherman provides for the withdrawal of an amount at least equal to the customs duties to be paid prior to January 1, which will be nearly $40,000,000, leaving an insignificant sum to be redeemed after formal resumption takes place. Events will probably prove that the withdrawal of a much smaller amount will suffice. Meanwhile the Secretary still has power to pay out either gold, legal-tenders or silver, for the ordinary expenses of the Government, as the circumstances may require.

By some persons who, though professing to desire resumption, have bitterly opposed every practical step to that end, this measure is criticised on the plea that silver dollars will presently get into circulation to a large amount, and will then sink to their bullion value. Experience will show, within a few days, how much reason there is for this objection. It has been found utterly impossible to get the silver dollars into circulation in place of legal-tenders, except for the payment of duties. Practically no other demand exists for them; for that purpose, the demand, cannot exceed the amount of duties to be paid. The Treasury can now pay out $10,000,000 in silver, and within a month that amount may be returned to its vaults. Beyond about that amount, there is no reason to suppose that silver will be demanded in exchange for notes. In any case, it must remain essentially a token-coinage, confined to this country because more valuable here as a representative of gold than elsewhere as bullion. It can be obtained only by payment of its par value in promises of the United States to pay gold January 1. It can be obtained only in limited quantity, as long as any premium on gold remains, and after that disappears, no one will want it even for payment of duties.

For three months, the premium on gold has been less than 1 per cent. For a day or two, early in June, 101 was the nominal price, but before that month closed gold fell to 100⅝, and has never risen above 100⅜ since July 1. The expectation of free issues of silver dropped the premium on gold to 100⅛ on Saturday, and it does not appear probable that any premium whatever will be maintained many days. There will be no use for gold, because legal-tenders will become virtually payable for duties. Foreign balances are heavily in favor of this country, and doubtless will so remain during the rest of the year. As long as men hold as merchandise, on the chance that it may rise, it is costly stuff to carry. Nor can it be profitably exported, as long as payments to this country greatly exceed payments by this country. The supply in the market will be swelled by the yield from the mines and by payments of interest from the Treasury, and, meanwhile, nobody can find a use for the stock on hand. Under the circumstances, it will not be surprising if gold sinks to par very quickly. The "flat money" lunatics will probably have to write a new set of speeches before the election in October.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE New-York Tribune prints a fuller history of the attempt to buy a Republican elector in Oregon to vote for Tilden, in which Colonel Pelton, Manton Marble, Governor Grover, Senator Kelly and a number of other less prominent Democrats are shown to be implicated, than has hitherto been made public. The chief point established by this publication seems to be that the $6,000 that was deposited in New-York to be used in Oregon was not for "counsel fees," as the Democrats have tried to show, but was for the purpose of bribery and nothing else. That fact is abundantly proved, and it is enough in itself to sink Mr. Tilden's personal managers beneath the contempt of honest men. The Potter Committee, with all its desperate efforts, has unearthed nothing of this character against any Republican manager or candidate. It was, in fact, the most barefaced piece of bribery attempted during a pretty dirty campaign.

A RETURN to specie payments at the earliest period compatible with due regard to all interests concerned should ever be kept in view. Fluctuations in the value of currency are always injurious, and to reduce these fluctuations to the lowest possible point will always be a leading purpose in wise legislation. Convertibility, prompt and certain convertibility into coin, is acknowledged to be the best and safest safeguard against them.—President Abraham Lincoln.

VERY nearly the final vote on Governor in Vermont has now been received.—Proctor's majority over all his competitors is 16,582. The Republican majority in 1870 was a little over 23,000. The total vote this year is about 9,000 below that of 1870. Of the vote that was polled, however, leaving out of consideration the Greenback result, the Republican candidate received precisely the same relative ratio as in 1876. Upon the very reasonable presumption that more Greenback votes came from the Republican party than from the Democrats, the claim of a "reduced Republican majority" this year falls.

REGISTER SCOFIELD has left Washington to take part in the Republican canvass in Pennsylvania, though he expects to make no speeches from the stump. He has a few practical thoughts for his fellow-citizens which he wishes to express in a quiet way. He says he has had wide correspondence with the party leaders and cannot recollect a time when the Republican party in the State was in better trim for victory than it is now. Congressman Campbell, of the Bedford District, seems to share this sanguine view, for he says the strength of the National movement has been greatly overestimated, and that he is sure it is waning.

TWENTY-EIGHT millions a year have been saved in interest on the public debt by funding operations since 1871. Mr. Gladstone has directed attention to the fact that the most unmitigated democracy in the world has deliberately adopted the policy of reducing its prospective liabilities, while the aristocratic Government of Great Britain have ignobly handed over theirs to posterity. He gives us credit for having more honesty than financial skill. Yet the interest of the American debt, which was once the highest paid to Government creditors anywhere on earth, has been gradually reduced to good borrowing rates. It must not be forgotten that this is one of the beneficent results of the financial policy of the Republican party.—Tribune.

OF COURSE the chief regret as to the Maine result will be expended on the loss of two Congressmen. This is a loss which greatly increases the heretofore great difficulty of recapturing the House of Representatives from the Democrats. George W. Ladd, the Bangor apothecary chosen Congressman in the 4th district of Maine, is more Democrat than Greenbacker, having first received the Democratic nomination and then the Greenback. His election is a direct gain to the Southern side in the House of Representatives. Thompson H. Murch, the successful candidate in the 5th district, is a Greenbacker pure and simple, and was elected against both Republican and Democratic candidates. It is tolerably certain, however, from his history and status, that he will gravitate to the Democratic side. He is a stone-cutter by trade, entirely uneducated, and shameless enough to make a boast of his ignorance. He has been talking the most undisguised Communism from the stump. He is wholly without experience in business or public life. He boasts that he has never lost anything because he never had anything to lose, and has never forgotten anything because he never learned anything to forget. He is probably the most discreditable Congressman ever chosen, not excepting that great Democratic light, John Morrissey. And this man Murch is to succeed Eugene Hale! Mr. Hale was first elected to Congress in 1868, and has served continuously since with constantly growing usefulness. In 1874, President Grant appointed him Postmaster-General, but he preferred to retain his seat in the House, where he was among the foremost both in zeal and ability. He made a gallant fight in his district, refusing all compromise with the advocates of repudiation and national dishonor, and preaching the doctrines of honest money with eloquence and power. His defeat is disgraceful to the people of his district and disappointing to the friends of good government everywhere. It was totally unexpected, and is the blackest line in the Maine picture.—Buffalo Express.

MR. M. S. QUAY, chairman of the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania, has issued an address which puts the party squarely on honest money as the great issue of the campaign. He says: "To pay the National debt with irredeemable promises to pay is repudiation. The masses of the people of Pennsylvania are honest, and cannot sanction repudiation in any form." That is the great principle involved in the contest which the Greenback agitators have forced, and it is put in a way so simple that everyone can understand it. It does not seem possible that the voters of Pennsylvania will be willing to say on election day:—"The Republican leaders are wrong. The masses of the people of Pennsylvania are not honest." That is what they will say if they suffer the Republican cause to be defeated.

It looks as if the Republicans were likely to gain a Congressman in Pennsylvania in a district which was considered to be hopelessly Democratic. The long and mulish balloting of the Democrats in the XXIst District has ended at last in the nomination of the worst candidate in the lot. A corrupt bargain is charged, and a bolt is threatened. Morgan R. Wise, the nominee, is spoken of by so strong a Democratic sympathizer as The Philadelphia Times, as a "cheap John sort of a rooster," whose nomination is "an insult to an intelligent district," and a confession of "self-prostitution" on the part of the convention, and whose candidacy must inevitably cause a "pretty general revolt among decent Democrats."—There is talk of running one of the rival candidates as an Independent, which would divide the Democratic vote and help the Republicans. The Republican candidate, Colonel A. Fuller, is a good man and a thorough Republican. His friends are claiming that he will be elected, and they seem to have excellent grounds for their faith.

Seven Hundred People Drowned.

LONDON, September 3.—The excursion steamer Princess Alice, returning from Gravesend to London this evening with about 800 passengers, was run down off Barking, about eight o'clock, by a screw steamer. It is reported that from 300 to 650 lives were lost. The company's wharf is besieged by crowds anxious to hear from friends and relatives who were passengers on the ill-fated boat.

September 4.—The steamer which sunk the Princess Alice is supposed to be the Bywell Castle, a screw collier bound north in ballast. The steward of the Princess Alice states that after the collision the other steamer proceeded without attempting to render aid. He estimates the number of drowned at about 600, though other reports run higher. She sank low first in five minutes after she was struck. Some small boats and another excursion steamer gave what assistance possible.—The drowned include an extraordinary proportion of women and children. Several of the survivors speak of having lost as many as three, five and six children.

They describe the water as being covered with hundreds of shrieking people. The captain and nearly all of the crew of the steamer were drowned. They had no time to lower the boats and there were but few life-buoys on board. All the police of Woolwich, town and arsenal, were engaged all night in labelling the corpses, chiefly of women and children, which completely fill the board room at the Steamboat Company's office at Woolwich. A passenger who scrambled on board the Bywell Castle, says that she threw ropes to the people struggling in the water. The number lost is uncertain.

STATE POLITICS.

—HON. Eli Slifer denies having taken part in the new party movement in Union county.

—A. K. Horne, Republican candidate for Auditor in Luzerne county, declines the honor.

—The Clarion Democrat believes there are not in that county over 1,000 Greenbackers out of a total vote of 7,000.

—There is a singular coincidence in the fact that so many Greenback-Labor candidates for county offices are declining "the honor."

—John P. Taylor, editor of the Montrose Republican, is the Republican candidate for the Legislature in Susquehanna county.

—The Young Men's Republican Club of Wilkesbarre have engaged a band to give a concert for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers in the South.

—The Republicans of Tioga county have resolved against the issue of inconvertible paper currency by the Government, and in favor of an honest fulfillment of all its financial obligations.

—The Democrats who are in the National party, in all parts of the State, are decoys to mislead Republicans. About one out of every twenty of these dummies will vote the Greenback-Labor ticket.

—There is a Kilkenny cat fight among the Democracy of Clinton county. Ex-Gov. Curtin is the wool in that wood pile. The Democracy don't want the war-Governor as a candidate, but are always happy to accept him as a howler.

—P. Gray Meek, of the Bellefonte Watchman, announces himself as a candidate for Congress, subject to the decision of the Centre County Democratic Convention. This is the opposition to the bluer and to ex-Governor Curtin.

—If the people of Pennsylvania want to be represented in the United States Senate by another Democrat, all they need do is to defeat the Republicans in the legislative districts, for both the Democrats and the Nationals are committed against any possible Republican candidate for the Senate.—Clinton Republican.

WALTER H. SHUPE, the editor of the Advocate, was arrested some time since as defendant in a suit for libel alleged to have been made by him on the floor of the National Convention held at Toledo in February last, and he was held to bail in the sum of $2,500. Eli P. Miller, who became one of Shupe's bondsmen, has withdrawn from the bond, and Mr. Shupe is looking for another surety to take Mr. Miller's place.

IT IS a great mistake for any person not acclimated to venture South for the purpose of serving as nurse or physician. The impulse suggesting such a course is the very noblest that can actuate humanity; but in the present condition of affairs it is a mistaken impulse. A Northern man with the constitution of a mule and the personal habits of an archangel would stand but the ghost of a chance of living, in either Memphis or New Orleans, for a week.

Fat Man Made Happy--Loses 61 lbs.

PRATTVILLE, Ala., 20th, 1878.

ROYANIC MEDICINE CO., Buffalo, N. Y.:

Gentlemen:—About three months ago I commenced using your "Anti-Fat," at which time my weight was 319 pounds. By following your directions carefully, I have succeeded in reducing my weight to 158 pounds. This is all very satisfactory and pleasant; but just previous to my commencing the use of your medicine, I had purchased two suits of fine clothes at a high price, and find, to my dismay, that they are entirely useless to me now. When I put one of my coats on, my friends tell me it looks like a coffee sack on a bean-pole, and when I put the pants on,—well, description fails. My object in writing is to ascertain whether you have not, in connection with your medicine business, an establishment where your patrons, similarly situated, could exchange these useless garments for others that would fit. I think you ought to have something of the kind, as it would be an inducement for many to use the Anti-Fat, who now object to using it, in consequence of the loss they would sustain in throwing aside valuable garments. Just turn this matter over in your mind. A "Clothing Exchange" is what you want in connection with your Anti-Fat business.

Yours truly, GEORGE BOYD.

HERE AND HEREABOUTS.

—The Era needs a new dress.

—Bradford wants a city charter. She needs it and should have it.

—Insure your life with W. H. Mandeville, Olean, N. Y. tf

—Every Republican voter should attend the caucus Saturday evening.

—None but reliable insurance companies represented by W. H. Mandeville. tf

—Rev. H. S. Getz, of Warren, held service in the Episcopal Chapel last Sabbath.

—W. D. Gallup, and Warley Gifford, of Haskill & Gifford, have gone to the city for new goods.

—The father of F. W. Knox, of Coudersport, was the first white child born in the Cowanesque valley.

—The races at Port Allegany on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week were quite largely attended, we learn.

—V. R. Vanderhule and M. A. Lillibridge of Port Allegany returned from a lengthy western trip last evening.

—According to the Breeze, Tim Mullin is the Kearney of Bradford. Not a very reputable "posish," Tim.

—Hamilton's German Bitters are the best. Large bottles only 50 cents. Sold by A. B. Armstrong. Aug. 22-3m.

—W. W. Brown spoke at a Republican meeting at Duke Centre Tuesday evening. Wallace is at home on the stump.

—A. B. Armstrong sells Hamilton's Ginger Tonic for Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, &c. Aug. 22. m-3

—It should not be forgotten that Picard, the baker, not only supplies orders for bread, pie and cake, but keeps a full stock of choice groceries.

—The Bradford Breeze warmly commends the nomination of J. L. Andrews for Sheriff. Jule has hosts of friends of the kind that stand by in time of need.

—Ben Dikeman was knocked down by a gambler in the streets of Bradford a few nights ago. No blood was shed, and it is not stated what became of the gambler.

—Elmira has the State Fair this week, and the daily papers are decidedly bucolic. The Advertiser "Mentionette" man shows an increased tendency to verdancy.

—Lawyer Sterrett's new house, on King street, promises to be one of the finest residences in the borough. He expects to have it finished and in occupation before the frosts.

—The fact that it is very sickly in Bradford is at last admitted. Typhus fever has taken the field, and it is only a wonder with the inducements held out by bad drainage that it held off so long.

—The National Standard, a new Greenback organ, published at Williamsport, is among our most recent new exchanges. Its make up and typography is excellent and its doctrines are execrable.

—George Van Campen, Jr., one of the proprietors of the Olean House, Olean, has been to Wisconsin in search of a wife, and if report is true was very successful. He returned with Mrs. Van, formerly Miss Emma Borden, of Milton, Wis.

—John Taylor has lately sold two or three more lots on Main street, in addition to those lately sold to Messrs. Abbey and Specht. Mr. Taylor's disposition to give people an opportunity of building up the town is worthy of imitation.

—E. A. Parsons editor of the Bradford Argus, the democratic organ of Bradford county, has been nominated by the democratic county convention of that county for Congress. He has been connected with the Argus for 40 years, and deserves something from his party.

—The editor of the Bradford Breeze was so foolishly reckless of consequences a few days since as to make the assertion that the ladies of Bradford were not as handsome as the men. The poor fellow has since retracted the slander—and he hopes that his hair will grow out again in a few weeks.

—The MINER has no pet candidates. Whatever may be the personal preferences of the editor, and he has the same right to them that any other man has, he does not consider it proper to comment editorially upon the fitness or unfitness of any candidates presented for nomination. The Convention is competent to decide upon their relative merits and strength; after the candidates are in the field they and the party can draw at sight upon the MINER to the extent of its resources in the way of support.

—Rev. J. Ward Gamble, of Port Allegany, has recently met with a double affliction in the death of his wife and child.

—The Rogers well, on Potato Creek, is down 1,600 feet and upwards. The tools were lost on Tuesday noon and have not yet been recovered.

—At this writing, Thursday morning, the tools and about 1500 feet of rope are in the Rogers well. Had it not been for this mishap they would now have been in the sand.

—Mrs. Gifford, relict of Job Gifford, was buried yesterday. They were among the early settlers of this community, having lived in Keating township for a great number of years. This one by one the pioneers pass away.

—The Democratic Convention of Elk county was held on Tuesday, Sept. 3, and the following ticket nominated:

Senate—John G. Hall.
Assembly—Dr. C. R. Early.
Treasurer—Michael Brunners.
Prothonotary—Fred. Schoening.

—County Auditor, M. W. Fisher, died on Sunday last of fever. He has for some time been connected with the O. B. & W. R. R. He was an excellent business man, and much thought of in Bradford and vicinity.

—A doctor went out for a day's hunting, and meeting a neighbor, complained that he had killed nothing. "If you had kept to your legitimate business, you would have had no such sad story to tell," replied the joking neighbor.

—The meeting of the Republican convention next Wednesday is looked forward to with unusual interest. The two conventions that have already been held were decidedly tame affairs. Something very much the reverse is expected next Wednesday.

—In going to Bradford yesterday over the K. & E. road, we run across no less half a dozen candidates of all persuasions. It is a good year for such fruit; the supply being fully equal to the demand and the quality fully up to the average in some parts.

—The Breeze and the Era, of Bradford, both claim the credit of having first suggested the necessity of a city charter for Bradford. Let us see, we think the MINER urged the matter in a very able article several years ago. We will look up our files, and the boys will in the meantime please refrain from blows.

—The New York Polo Club, under the leadership of Jim Bennett, proprietor of the New York Herald, came up to Buffalo to teach the Buffalo Club how to play the game. The New York bloods, "with their servants," returned "wiser if not better men" and polo players. The Buffalonians were to much for them.

—Last evening, at about 8 o'clock, a man suddenly fell off a pile of lumber in the alley leading to this office, with every appearance of having a fit. He was picked up and given a drink of brandy, at which he revived at once. In fact, his recovery was so sudden that very strong suspicions were entertained that it was a put up job to get a drink.—Breeze.

—Robert C. Simpson, Esq., of Wellsboro, was several months ago, appointed Representative of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons of Scotland, near the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, and his commission from the Grand Lodge of Scotland was received in Philadelphia a few days ago. This appointment is one of the greatest compliments a member of the order can receive.—Tioga Express.

—A new bug has appeared in Connecticut which alarms the farmers. It has six legs, is brown in color, and is longer and flatter than the potato bug. It goes ravenously at the growing corn, and, beginning at the top, goes to the butt, destroying every kernel. It is a swift flyer. Here's more trouble for the tillers of the soil.

—The entire rig used in drilling the Genesee Forks well passed through our village in numerous installments last week, bound for the station. It was a mournful procession, carrying as it did the announcement of failure to reach the coveted fluid and abandonment of effort in that direction. But we still have Whitesville and Pikesville to hang our hopes on. In both places work is progressing.—Wellsville Reporter.

—The snug little sum of sixty-two dollars and upwards, in aid of the yellow fever fund, was taken up at the churches in this borough on Sunday last, and considering the fact that no announcement of the collection had been made beforehand, this impromptu contribution by the citizens of Smethport is an act of charity worthy of the highest commendation. The collection is placed in charge of the Howard Relief Association.

—The Hebron well on Tuesday night was nearly 2,200 feet in depth. A good-looking but thin oil sand was struck at about 2,120 feet. The smell of oil could be plainly detected in this sand, but no oil was found. The directors held a meeting Tuesday afternoon and decided to go to a depth of 2,300 feet, and then, if there is a ghost of a show, will decide to go to a depth of 2,400 feet. They propose to have no half-way work about this well.—Potter Enterprise.

—Bro. Meade, of the Bradford Evening Breeze, gets out a neat, well printed and made up paper, and is also a genius. He has patented a Blotter-Tablet which very much surpasses the celebrated Hodder patent, upon which such a monopoly has been built up. We have examined it and can fully commend it as the neatest thing out for the purpose of making up letter heads and bill heads in a convenient and cleanly shape.

—By virtue of a writ of ejectment the Sheriff decined it his duty to demolish a small building in Bradford the other day. The matter caused considerable excitement, and one of the young men of the Era saw fit to censure the Sheriff for his action. We know nothing of the law of the case, no more than does the Era man, but we will wager that Sheriff King knew what he was about and will not be bluffed or frightened by threats of suits for damages.

—We are pained to have to note the fact that two ladies of this borough, heretofore considered eminently respectable, were openly accused a few days ago by a leading grocer, in everything but gentlemanly language, of stealing a tomato! The matter caused an interesting scene for a few minutes, accompanied with a good deal of profanity on the part of the merchant and more disgust on the part of the ladies. This enterprising and gentlemanly grocer took the pay for the tomato like a little man and now looks every day for a largely increasing patronage to follow this affair. It will no doubt follow.

—The fall term of the Smethport Academy commences next Monday, with Prof. Bartholomew as Principal. With low tuition and the very best prospects for a successful school, we expect the term will be largely patronized by the people here and elsewhere. Prof. Bartholomew comes here very highly recomended and will undoubtedly prove to be just the person to conduct the Smethport school. We shall speak of this matter more at length hereafter.

—We have discovered one man who believes (or claims to) that the democrats did not blunder in making their nominations. He is the Smethport correspondent of the Reporter. He warns every one not to be deceived by the assertions of the MINER to that effect. We are disposed to believe that "Cortez" is really a republican, and is wickedly trying to deceive the democracy into the belief that their ticket is really strong! We would caution our democratic friends to take no stock in that fellow.

—Saturday and Sunday were rather poor days for the B. N. Y. & P. R. R. Company. On Saturday six cars were run off the track at Larrabee's, caused by a misplaced switch, and on Sunday morning a train bound South broke apart between Keating Summit and Shippen and when the forward part reached the latter place, the balance of the train came to it with such force as to completely demolish thirteen cars (three of which were loaded with cheese and general merchandise) and smashed them up so fine that nothing but the wheels could be found. Fortunately no one was seriously injured.—Emporium Independent.

—Sheriff King undertook to discipline an insubordinate prisoner last Sunday morning by the mild punishment of locking him up in a cell alone and handcuffed. The fellow resisted the Sheriff and attempted to strike him, but Chet. was too quick for him, and by putting in a few vigorous blows soon brought him to terms. We are surprised to learn that this troublesome customer is Shupe, who was stabbed by a fellow prisoner a few weeks ago, and for whom so much sympathy was felt. He now repays the care that was given him for weeks by the Sheriff and his family and the other prisoners by showing how ugly and insubordinate he can be. He makes more trouble than all the other prisoners put together.

—We inadvertently omitted in our last issue to mention the death of J. O. W. Bailey, a prominent lawyer of Ridgway. Mr. Bailey was a lieutenant in the State militia, and while attending an encampment of his regiment at Chautauqua was stricken with paralysis and died in a few hours. A casual acquaintance with Mr. Bailey assured us that he was a gentleman of no ordinary merit, and the abundance of resolutions of respect and sorrow passed by his professional and social friends of his own home testify his worth. He was 33 years of age, a lawyer of ability and prominence, and at the time of his death was chairman of the Republican County Committee of Elk county. He leaves a wife and three children.

—A man named White, of Scio, got suspicions of his wife and played the going off for three days dodge on her.—When he got back that evening, it was raining, and he met a man with an umbrella coming out of the door. Feeling sure and satisfied he drew his revolver and blazed away at the destroyer of his happiness. It turned out the man was a very respectable drygoods clerk who dropped in to borrow the umbrella, and was the wrong man of course. When White "made up" with his wife in the orthodox manner, he thought everything was lovely, but since he has been arrested for assault with intent to kill by the clerk, who was wounded in the hand, White begins to think there is a mistake in the proceedings somewhere.—Exchange.

—On Saturday morning last, between 4 and 5 o'clock a fire was discovered among the lumber piles near the saw mill of John Irvin & Bros., on the east side of the river at Curwensville, which consumed 1,500,000 feet of sawed lumber, about 15,000 shingles and a large number of lath, pickets, etc. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, as it was started in the very heart of the piles of lumber, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the saw and grist mills and other buildings were saved. Shaw's store building, the Susquehanna House, and dwellings on the west side of the river were in great danger. On the former, which is the old Irvin "Corner Store," the pitch was roasted out of the knots and the paint so badly burned that it will have to be repaired. In the burning of the lumber the Irvin Bros. lose from $18,000 to $20,000 on which there is said to be an insurance of $14,000.—Bafftsman's Journal.

New 'Bus.

The enterprising proprietor of the 'bus line between this village and the depot has dispensed with the ugly looking wagon which has so long been used in transporting passengers to and from the trains, and in its place substituted a beautiful new 'bus for the accommodation of his patrons. It is really a handsome affair, and much admired by every one who sees it. Mr. Vickery is enterprising and deserves patronage.

Popular Traveling Agent.

Our friend A. J. Nourse, late traveling agent for the cigar firm of O. P. Taylor & Co., Wellsville, N. Y., has severed his connection with that business house and entered the employ of E. W. Rolfe & Co., wholesale and retail cigar manufacturers, Wilmarth, Elk county. He carries with him the documents authorizing him to collect money, sell goods, and transact any business pertaining to the latter firm. Rolfe & Co., sell the very best cigars to be had, and may consider themselves extremely fortunate in having secured a very popular salesman. Jud's experience alone is worth a year's salary.

Butter and Cheese Market.

UTICA, September 9.—Eleven thousand boxes of cheese were offered to-day. Two thousand went forward on commission, and ten thousand sold for 7¾@8¼c, extreme; leading price was 8¼c. The market was firm and tending upward.

LITTLE FALLS, Sept. 9.—There was a better feeling in the cheese market to-day for factory cheese. A hundred salesmen had ten thousand boxes, but held for an advance. Sales were made at 7¾@8c, chiefly 8@8¼c. State factory fine to fancy quoted at 8¼@8½c; good to prime, 7@8c. Of farm dairy cheese, 611 boxes were sold at 7@8¼c; the most going at 7¾@8c.

Butter quoted at 16@19c; prime at 20@22c.

A Pleasant Wedding.

Rev. Whiteside, who performed the ceremony, gives us the particulars of a very pleasant wedding ceremony which took place at the residence of Casper Hafner, Sergeant township, yesterday. The occasion was the marriage of his daughter Lena to John Martin, of the same place. A large company of invited guests were present, the bride was lovely, the groom supremely happy, the supper unequalled, the presents numerous and costly, and in every way it was a wedding long to be remembered. We had no suspicion that John contemplated matrimony, but he is one of nature's noblemen and is deserving of his happiness and good luck.

Aid for Yellow Fever Sufferers.

Smethport, although not a "city," is not behind other towns in responding to the appeals for help from our southern brethren who are suffering and dying from that dreadful scourge, the yellow fever. Last Saturday one of our thoughtful and benevolent citizens suggested to the pastors of our churches the advisability of soliciting contributions from their respective congregations on the following day for the purpose mentioned. They acted upon the suggestion and the result was a collection of $63.80. Considering the fact that there was no previous notice that such a collection would be made, and thus few were prepared to contribute what they might desire and be willing to, this was indeed a generous contribution. The money was forwarded to the Howard Relief Association of New Orleans.

A Terrible Fall.

From the Bradford, Era of Saturday, we learn that a man named P. M. Lamb, while at work on the spire of the Catholic church in that town, by the giving way of the scaffolding, fell to the ground, a distance of 135 feet, breaking an arm, a leg and receiving other injuries. The Era, in describing the accident says:

"Yesterday the frame work was all up and the large wooden cross in place at the top. A scaffolding had been built to the extreme top and four men were at work near the top yesterday afternoon, strengthening the spire. Just before 5 o'clock, and without a moments warning, the immense wall of lumber suddenly settled, split or spread open at the bottom and then fell with a terrible crash on to the church, carrying the workmen down to a horrible fate. The whole mass struck square on the ridge of the roof, smashing to pieces and flying in all direction. Among the workmen on the spire were P. M. Lamb, who was working at the extreme top, 118 feet from the ground. Joe McGurn, a brother of the contractor, and who was about 75 feet lower down, and Joe Newberry, who was about 25 feet above the roof of the church.

Lamb fell from the extreme top down to, and struck on, the edge of the roof, and then bounded about thirty feet from the church and struck the ground amidst the lumber, with timbers falling all around him. From the top of the spire to where he landed on the ground is fully one hundred and thirty-five feet. On examination it was found that his left arm was broken square off at the wrist, his left leg broken about four or five inches above the ankle and his face and hands were bruised in a terrible manner. It is not known up to this writing whether the man was injured internally or not. There is but little hope of his recovery.

Joe McGurn fell about forty feet to the roof on the west side, striking on his stomach, and slid down like a flash over the roof, and then fell to the ground. His wrist was broken and dislocated and he was badly injured in the bowels from a heavy timber falling upon him. He will hardly recover.

Good-Natured Editing.

"Good-natured editing," says some wise man, "spoils half the papers in the United States." Yes, verily. "Will you please publish the poetry I send," says one; "it is my first effort," and sends crude lines go in to encourage budding genius. "Our church is in great peril," says another; "will you publish our appeal?" and a long dolorous pile is inserted. "My father took your paper for twenty years," writes another, "I think you ought to publish the resolutions passed by the Big Brake Church when he died," and in go resolutions of no interest to a majority of the readers. "I am particularly anxious that the views I present go before the church this week," and out go a covey of small, pithy contributions to make room for three columns from a ponderous D.D. "There is immediate necessity for the exposure of one who is a bitter enemy to the truth," writes another, as he sends an attack upon an antagonist which will fill an entire page. "I am about to publish a book, identifying the Great Image of brass, iron and clay and I would be obliged to you to publish the advance sheets of Chapter V., which I inclose to you." "Why don't you publish in full R.'s great speech in the general assembly? It will increase your circulation largely." "If you will publish the sermon I transmit to you I will take eight extra copies!" "The church must be aroused on the subject of foreign missions," says a pastor, as he forwards the half of his last Sabbath's sermon. And the ladies—bless their sweet smiles and their sweet voices! the good-natured editor surrenders to them at once, and they go away happy, utterly unconscious that they have helped to spoil the paper.—The Presbyterian.

The Poor Men Suffer.

The poor man at Memphis is the sufferer; the man of wealth has gone away with his money or locked it up behind him. Says the Avalanche: "Memphis has many rich men who own palatial stores along Main street. There is not one of these rich men here to-day, in the hour of our greatest calamity. These rich men are neither represented in person nor by their surplus dollars. The majority of the men who are standing in the deadly breach, fighting the most gigantic plague that ever cursed American soil, are men who do not own $1 in real estate in Memphis." Where, it asks, is this man and that man; giving their names, "and a score of others that we propose to mention at a future time?—Have we seen the light of their countenance or the odor of their money? Facts are stubborn things, and we are now treating of facts. The men who are to-day standing in the fore-front of the battle have no capital but their manhood. God bless them."

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

UP KNAPP'S CREEK.

Eldred Items and Knapp's Creek Oil and Local Notes.

From our Regular Correspondent.

MIDDAUGHVILLE, Sept. 10, 1878.

Mrs. Geo. Fox, of Duke Centre is very low with typhoid fever and considered very dangerous. . . . A Mrs. Rohmer from Wisconsin while on a visit to this place was taken sick at the United States hotel, where her mother sojourns, and died. A complication of difficulties with a sudden attack of the prevailing fever caused her death. The remains were taken to Hartford, Wis., for interment. . . . Dr. Dallanbaugh, of the U. S. Hotel, is also regarded seriously ill. . . . F. W. Sprague's family have been low for a long time, but are on the mend. . . . Sam'l Baldwin's people are also a little better. . . . There are other cases, including Dr. Wilson, who has gone home to recruit. . . . Trade is rather dull and money scarce. . . . The United Pipe Line Co. are building another 80,000 barrel tank at this point, and are putting a 4-inch line from there to Olean. . . . There was a Republican meeting held at the Opera House last evening. It was addressed by W. W. Brown, of Bradford, and W. B. Chapman, who came over on a special train, and I am informed that a permanent organization was effected, W. H. Randall being elected President, L. S. Anderson V. P., and W. S. Lewis, Secretary and Treasurer. . . . It is suggested that inasmuch as Rev. W. Miller, who has been preaching at Rixford and Duke Centre during the past conference year, ought to receive a donation from the people of Duke Centre who would be glad of any opportunity to contribute for his benefit, and are only waiting for a suitable chance. Now is the time as it is very much needed. . . . There is some active operations up the Kansas branch, near the G. V. Foreman well. Two are producing about 16 barrels each. . . . Painter Bros. are now ready to commence drilling on the Whitney tract. . . . Prescott, Young & Co., have just started on their own land. . . . Wm. McGill is starting a couple of rigs. . . . Brown & Co. are putting down a well on Whitney & Wheeler, which is down 700 feet. . . . D. W. Brown was cutting down a tree and cut his foot very seriously, but is around on crutches.

TRAM ROAD.

At the Cole & Co. well a few days ago a large birch tree had been squeaking at a fearful rate occasionally, but the boys were afraid to cut it down for fear that it might fall on the boiler, when all at once it gave way and came down. It is said that the way Robinson, the long-legged man, stepped off was a caution. . . . Isaac Williams has a well on the White farm down 800 feet. . . . Jno. Duke has a well in progress on his north-east corner of the Stoughton lease. . . . A good meal for 25c at Neffe's, in Oil Center. . . . Edgar Sherman & Co. have groceries, etc., at Oil Centre. . . . The school directors of Otto township have been looking about in this locality to select a site for a school house, which is very much needed. . . . The United Pipe Line have a pump station at this place and represent the production of the 27th district to be from 2,800 to 3,000 barrels per day and are now able to carry off the production.

BIXFORD.

There has been quite an excitement in this place since the soiled doves took their flight. Officer Brown, who took the guilty culprit to the Smethport jail for daring to kiss a respectable lady, arrested a noisy chap last Sunday, who with others of the same sort were disturbing the peace, and one of them, encouraged by the others, raised cudgel over Browns head and when about to strike the fatal blow, was intercepted by a citizen who caught the club and thus saved him from the blow. He was fined by the justice and locked up until paid. . . . John Belknap has his new house finished for present use and is now prepared to accommodate all who would give him a call. . . . The town of Rixford for some cause, perhaps from necessity, is without a brothel on Main street. The inmates probably got short of rations or were a little shy of court week and fled to pastures new. . . . There is still too much activity in drilling around this place, notwithstanding, it is a sure thing to put down a hole any where on the line of the valley or on the hill west of the railroad. . . . Arnold & Dolly No. 2 is a 40 barrel well and Doe & Felt No. 1 is good for 35 barrels. . . . The McKeown No. 6 is nearly due, as well as Knapp's Creek Oil Co. No. 6 is probably in by this time—No. 9 is 800 feet. . . . The Maple tree well on McCullough is only about 2 1-2 barrels instead of 40 or 50 as I was made to say in the Era. . . . Davis & Denman on D. M. Baker is drilling. There are also several others in progress in this locality. Christie well on H. K. Barton is due. . . . The Equitable Pipe Line Company are grading for a 35,000 barrel tank at Frisbee and have commenced laying a four inch line from that place to Lock Haven, Pa. . . . The 85th N. Y. State Volunteers held their first re-union at Friendship, N. Y., last Thursday, which was a glorious success. The weather was very favorable and a representation of 1,640 members, besides several communications read from absent persons that could not attend on account of the distance. The meeting was duly organized and addressed by Maj. R. V. King and others, also a poem was recited from memory by Mrs. A. G. Burdick, which was very interesting. On the whole it was an interesting time. There were some 1,000 served with a free dinner by the citizens of Friendship.

ELDRED.

Mr. Benjamin Bunker has lost two cows this week very mysteriously. One of them was found dead on Monday morning and the other died at noon the same day. . . . A bear came along the other night and made a call on G. T. Dennis for some mutton, but the dog made an alarm and drove him away. . . . The Benton bridge luckily broke down the other day just after a load of bark had gone over. I learn this morning it will be repaired to-day. . . . The Plank Road is graded up to the Littlefield farm and the company had three loads of plank at Eldred Monday morning but only two of them have been unloaded. . . . Eldred improvements are still going on, but I have not time to detail them.

—An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French or English. A Merry Heart.

Solomon says "A merry heart maketh a glad countenance," but the heart is not apt to be merry if one is suffering from dyspepsia, biliousness, indigestion or liver complaint, or if sleep is disturbed or unrefreshing. The most frequent cause of sleeplessness is dyspepsia, of which all medical writers declare it to be a sure symptom. For the certain cure of these distressing maladies, we have never yet discovered a medicine to equal PARMELEE'S DYSPEPSIA COMPOUND. Its influence is truly wonderful and all that could be desired. In invigorates the digestive organs and imparts new life to the whole system; it is also a great regulating tonic and holds the foremost place among medicinal preparations of its class.

We are so confident that it will give satisfaction in every case that we invite you to try it. If not entirely satisfactory, return the empty bottle, and we will refund the money. Sample bottles 15 cents; regular size, $1.00. For sale by A. B. Armstrong, Smethport, Pa. 15-15 e o w, 1 y

—Geo. D. Prentice speaks of Time as "The Tomb Builder." We suggest to mother that FIFTEEN MINUTES of precious time may build a tomb for the dear form that now sleeps so gently, should Croup in its worst type attack it. How will you guard against the destroyer? DARE YOU neglect to use every known precaution? It is not possible to have a physician always at hand. Frequently the time taken in calling one, would be the death of the child. We assume the grave responsibility of saying to these mothers, that Hatch's Universal Cough Syrup is as nearly a specific as has yet been discovered for this dread disease. We should not say this without positive knowledge. This medicine has been tested for fourteen years, and thousands are quieted nightly by the fact that they have it in reach for immediate use. Every mother songs for a safeguard of this kind. Regular sizes and 10 cent samples for sale by Armstrong & Co., Smethport, Pa.

For Generations Disease arising from indiscretion have been treated with Balsam Copaiba and Mercury, until the stomachs of the patients using them became so nauseated and weakened that it was hard to decide which was the worst complaint, the disordered stomach or the original disease. At length the Samaritan's Gift made its advent, and an entirely new system of cure was inaugurated, and the beneficial results at once seen. The disgusting drugs and poisons were discarded, and to-day the Gift is prescribed by numbers of the leading Physicians; yet, notwithstanding the Samaritan's Gift is known to be a positive cure, purely vegetable, and pleasant to use, as only ten pills have to be taken, many old anti-diluvians will stick to their sickening drugs and gorge their patients for weeks, perhaps months. Has a long job and a big bill anything to do with it? Male packages $2; Female $3. Court Proclamation.

The Hon. HENRY W. WILLIAMS, President Judge, and the Hons. W. S. BROWNELL, and E. N. BURNHAM, Associate Judges of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Orphans' Court and Court of Common Pleas for the County of McKean, have issued their precept, bearing date Friday, June 21, 1878, and to me directed, for holding a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Orphans' Court, and Court of Common Pleas, in the Borough of Smethport, on Monday, the 23d day of September, 1878, and to continue one week.

Notice is therefore hereby given to Coroners, Justices of the Peace and Constables within the county that they be then and there in their proper person at 10 o'clock a.m. of said day, with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations, and other remembrances, to do those things which their offices appertain to be done. And those who are bound by their recognizances to prosecute the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of said county of McKean are to be then and there to prosecute against them as will be just.

Dated at Smethport, June 21, 1878, and the 102d year of the Independence of the United States of America.

"DOMESTIC"

Is the most desirable and efficient machine made, for these reasons:

It is made of the choicest materials, and by the best workmen.

It is the simplest in construction, and most reliable in its action.

It requires almost no adjusting, and yet does every variety of work.

It is noiseless, rapid, and will outwear any other machine.

It is the easiest running of machines, and saves muscle and nerves, which are more valuable than money.

It has never failed to give perfect satisfaction.

Every machine warranted.

☞ Physicians recommend it for its light-running and noiseless qualities.

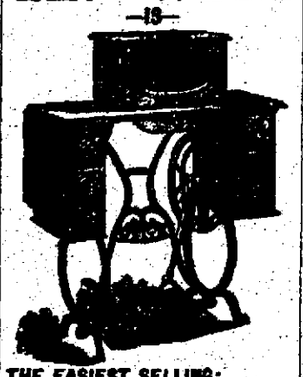
The White

—IS—



THE EASIEST SELLING;
THE BEST SATISFYING

Sewing Machine.

Its introduction and world-renowned reputation was the death-blow to high-priced machines.

THERE ARE NO SECOND HAND WHITE MACHINES IN THE MARKET.

This is a very important matter, as it is a well-known and undisputed fact that many of the so-called first-class machines which are offered as cheap second-hands are those that have been repossessed (that is, taken back from dealers after use) and rebuilt and put upon the market as new.

THE WHITE IS THE PEER OF ANY SEWING MACHINE NOW UPON THE MARKET.

IT IS MUCH LARGER THAN THE FAMILY MACHINES OF THE SINGER, HOWE AND WEED MAKE, IT COSTS MORE TO MANUFACTURE THAN EITHER OF THE AFORESAID MACHINES.

ITS CONSTRUCTION IS SIMPLE, POSITIVE AND DURABLE.

ITS WORKMANSHIP IS UNSURPASSED.

Do not Buy any other before trying THE WHITE.

CONDENSED OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

ALBANY JOURNAL.—This advance, following so soon after its transformation, is a gratifying proof of its popularity and success. A paper as distinctive as it is attractive.

TROY TIMES.—It is a model newspaper, and has met with a remarkable degree of success.

ELMIRA ADVERTISER.—Readers of the Express admire its independence, its bold charges for the right, the sterling and the true in politics and morals.

SYRACUSE JOURNAL.—With a strong corps of able editors, sound political principle underlying, and bright newsy paragraphs, it deserves well of the people.

ALLEGANY REPORTER.—Certainly the handsomest Daily in the State, and edited with rare ability.

UTICA HERALD.—The Express is pignant and positive and keeps up with all the news. The people are willing to pay a fair price for a paper that has all the news.

NEW-YORK COMMERCIAL.—The bright and sparkling Buffalo Express comes to us enlarged and with other evidences of prosperity.

ROCHESTER EXPRESS.—One of the handsomest papers in the country, and it is as good as it looks.

BINGHAMTON REPUBLICAN.—Enlarged very materially improved. It is one of the foremost and brightest papers in the State.

LOCKPORT TIMES.—It is but just to say that the prosperity of The Express is to be attributed to its merits.

SARATOGIAN.—It is to-day the peer of any journal in the State, and is as stalwart in its Republicanism as it is clear, fresh and vigorous in its discussions on the topics of the time.

WASHINGTON NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.—It is a very lively, sprightly, newsy and independent Republican journal.

ROCHESTER HERALD.—Deserves all the good fortune that has come to it or many visit it hereafter.

BROOKLYN UNION-ARGUS.—A most admirably conducted newspaper, with a rare combination of culture, dignity, independence, spiciness and ready tact.

WARREN MAIL.—It is an able, wide-awake and independent Republican journal, richly deserving its large and increasing patronage.

ALLEGANY REPORTER.—Certainly the handsomest Daily in the State, and edited with rare ability.

AMERICAN RURAL HOME.—Full to the brim of interesting matter, most carefully edited, and prints in a style unsurpassable. A genuine treat to read it.

JAMESTOWN JOURNAL.—Bright, attractive, energetic, able, occasionally inconsistent, sometimes unsurpassed, and always interesting. Better than ever.

POTTER JOURNAL.—We heartily commend it to all who like to read a straight-forward, wide-awake, backbone Republican journal—edited with pluck, brains and force.

LOCKPORT JOURNAL.—Enlarged to the equivalent of an entire page. Bright, crisp, and newsy. The fact is, in brief, The Express people are making a good newspaper.

LYONS REPUBLICAN.—One of the largest and very best daily newspapers in the State. Editorially, typographically and in every way it is a model newspaper.

THERE IS NO BETTER MEDIUM OF ADVERTISING IN WESTERN NEW-YORK. RATES AS LOW AS THOSE CHARGED BY ANY FIRST-CLASS NEWSPAPER.
